Handling of dogs at Shows

Whilst the Kennel Club is aware that the vast majority of dog owners show great care and attention when handling their dogs in and around the show ring, there are concerns that a small number of owners may need reminding of some practices which are undesirable.

The Kennel Club has received several complaints during the course of the year regarding the way in which some dogs are handled at shows. The most common practice which has resulted in complaints is the picking up of dogs, often Terriers, by their tails and lead when lifting them to and from the table during judging.

The Kennel Club believes that this practice is both undesirable and completely unnecessary, as evidenced by the large majority of dog owners and handlers who handle their dogs without discomfort in and around the show ring.

In support of the Kennel Club's position on the matter, notices to this effect will be given to the ring stewards at the show to remind exhibitors of this.

EXHIBITORS PLEASE NOTE

In accordance with the Kennel Club guidelines, exhibitors must display exhibit number/owner identification on their crate, cage or container at all times.

COVID-19 SAFE GUIDELINES

SECURITY AT SHOWS

In light of recent events the Kennel Club would like to issue a reminder to all societies of the importance of security at dog shows. The Kennel Club understand that due to the nature of dog shows and the quantity of paraphernalia exhibitors bring, it would be extremely difficult for show organisers to take on the issue of security alone, therefore we would re-iterate the advice being given by the Police and security services, that everyone in the UK should remain vigilant and this applies to those organising and taking part in dog shows.

The importance of exhibitors feeling that they and their dogs are safe when attending a show cannot be underestimated. We would therefore remind you of the importance of the need for show organisers and exhibitors to remain mindful of potential dangers and that all visitors to shows generally need to be vigilant and alert. Furthermore the society provide robust notification informing exhibitors of where to report to should they see anything suspicious or of concern, and the evacuation procedures in place.

In view of the above, should you see anything suspicious or of concern, please alert the Show Manager, and/or the Show Secretary immediately. If it is a package or bag you are concerned about, please do NOT attempt to move it or examine it yourself.

Should it be necessary for the hall to be evacuated, please remember that evacuation should be carried out as speedily but as safely carried out as possible, as in the case of a fire. It is important that you do not block the exit routes with cages or bags. Please follow any instructions given to you by the Show Management regarding evacuation procedures.

There should be plenty of free flowing air around the dog. When at the show, never leave your dog in
