IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR ALL DOG SHOW EXHIBITORS

This is particularly important when cages etc. are not on benches, and at unbent shows. Each exhibitor is responsible for providing their own crate or cage identification and should note that the original exhibit/bench number card, as provided by the show society, must not be used for this purpose.

Soft Crates: The Kennel Club has asked that we draw attention to the potential health and safety implications concerning the use of soft crates as in its view, they do not offer sufficient protection to dogs. JUDGES PROFILE

Bill Delucchi has been around the world of pedigree dogs for over 60 years, during which time he has been associated with some of the finest examples of Miniature Poodles and Pekingese, but let us not forget his association with various other breeds including Afghans, Chows, Shih-Tzus, Lhasa Apsos and Boxers.

From the early 1960s, Bill was a well known character, particularly in the Crewe and Staffordshire areas. These were the days of sanction, limited and open shows, and there are some that can recall Bill exhibiting at these events. Bill's talents were quickly recognised, and were put to good use by various kennels of the day. He was gifted with a natural ability for presenting and handling dogs.

Bill became a successful breeder of Miniature Poodles, producing a number of champions including the famous Ch. Wybun Sea Shell in 1965. Bill worked closely with the Poodle greats, particularly Mrs Conn of the famous Montmartre Kennel, and Mrs Rita Gee of the Beritas Kennel. It is interesting to note that the famous Poodle kennels of today were just starting to establish themselves during this period, and went on to experience colossal success.

It was in 1966 that Bill Hindley Taylor of the world famous Kyratown Kennel was to provide an opening for Bill Delucchi to handle some of the famous Kyratown champions of the day. Can you imagine the thrill of being given the opportunity of actually presenting and handling the finest examples of the breed at that time, particularly taking into consideration that Bill was only in his early to mid twenties? One of the highlights of his career must have been showing Ch. Althaea Dinah of Kyratown at Peterborough Championship Show 1966, and piloting Ch. Dinah to win the CC and BOB under the breed authority, Miss L.M. Mould, and then going on to win the Toy Group and Reserve Best In Show under one of the most famous all rounders of the day, Mr Fred Cross. Regretfully, Bill Hindley Taylor died in November 1971, but by this time Bill Delucchi was well and truly established in the world of dogs, and opportunities were to be made available to him. Jean Eisenman of the famous Jamestown Kennel had returned from a sabbatical in Australia, and had purchased Yu Yang of Jamestown back from Hilda Copley (Sancliffe). Jean entrusted Bill with the future of Yu Yang and he made the most of this dog, presenting and handling him to perfection. This resulted in Yu Yang winning his first CC and BOB under Mr Jack Mitchell (Micklelee) at Bournemouth in 1968. Ch. Yu Yang went on to become a pillar of the breed, siring many famous champions.

It was at the Birmingham Pekingese Association in 1982 that Bill was to make his debut as a championship show judge of Pekingese. On that day Bill's co-judge was Mrs Di Holman (Etive). Bill awarded a first CC to Hidden Talent of Toydom, owned by a comparative newcomer to the breed, Mrs Pam Hunter. Di Holman was in complete agreement that the dog should go Best In Show. Ch. Hidden Talent was to go on and win 6 CCs.
